

LEGAL MARRIAGE

Process in Thailand

PROCESS IN BANGKOK

"You need to visit the Embassy in Bangkok at least 10 WORKING days before your planned wedding date in Phuket"

The legal process involves booking an appointment at your respective embassies in Bangkok to obtain an Affidavit that states you are free to marry.

THIS AFFIDAVIT IS THEN TRANSLATED INTO THAI AND PASSED THROUGH THE THAI MINISTRY OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

Once you pass the affidavits to our team in Bangkok, you are free to leave Bangkok.

Note: We do recommend that you call your embassy to determine the exact process for obtaining your affidavit in Bangkok.

PROCESS IN PHUKET

The resulting paperwork is then passed to us in Phuket.

AND WE PROCESS IT FURTHER WITH THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT.

We then arrange for you to visit the government office to sign the marriage papers OR we bring the official to your beach wedding and you sign at the end of the ceremony.
